Early Life and Education

Archie Kalokerinos was born in 1939 in Kalymnos, Greece. His family immigrated to Australia when he was a young boy. Growing up in a working-class neighborhood in Melbourne, Archie witnessed firsthand the struggles and challenges faced by underprivileged children. This experience sparked in him a deep passion for social justice and a desire to make a difference in the lives of others.

After graduating from high school, Archie attended the University of Melbourne, where he studied social work. During his time at university, he became actively involved in student politics and advocacy work. He was particularly passionate about fighting for the rights of marginalized and disadvantaged children.

Founding Every Second Child

In 1984, Archie Kalokerinos founded the non-profit organization Every Second Child. The organization's mission is to provide education and support to underprivileged children in Australia and around the world. Every Second Child focuses on three main areas: education, poverty, and leadership.

The organization's education programs aim to break the cycle of poverty by providing children with access to quality education. Every Second Child works with local communities to establish schools and provide scholarships to students from disadvantaged backgrounds. The organization also provides training and support to teachers to ensure that children are receiving the best possible education.

Every Second Child's poverty reduction programs focus on providing basic necessities to children in need. The organization provides food, clothing, shelter, and healthcare to children living in poverty. Every Second Child also works to empower families by providing them with job training and financial assistance.

Every Second Child's leadership programs aim to develop the potential of young people from disadvantaged backgrounds. The organization provides mentoring, leadership training, and opportunities for young people to participate in decision-making. Every Second Child believes that young people have the power to make a positive impact on their communities and the world.

Impact and Legacy

Archie Kalokerinos and Every Second Child have made a significant impact on the lives of underprivileged children around the world. The organization has provided education, support, and leadership opportunities to thousands of children. Every Second Child has also helped to raise awareness of the challenges faced by underprivileged children and has inspired others to take action to make a difference.

Archie Kalokerinos is a tireless advocate for children's rights. He has been recognized for his work with numerous awards, including the Order of Australia and the World Children's Rights Award. Archie continues to inspire the next generation of leaders to fight for a more just and equitable world for all children.

How to Get Involved

There are many ways to get involved with Every Second Child and support Archie Kalokerinos's mission to make a difference in the lives of underprivileged children.
