The Adoption Process

The adoption process can be long and challenging. But it is also a journey that is filled with hope and love.

The first step in the adoption process is to apply to an adoption agency. The agency will then conduct a home study to assess your suitability as adoptive parents. Once you have been approved, you will be placed on a waiting list for a child.

The wait for a child can be long and difficult. But it is important to remember that there are children out there who need loving homes.

When a child becomes available for adoption, the agency will contact you. You will then have the opportunity to meet the child and decide if you want to adopt them.

If you decide to adopt the child, the agency will help you finalize the adoption. This process can take several months.
