The Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE) is a standardized test that assesses an attorney's knowledge of the ethical rules governing the practice of law. Passing the MPRE is a requirement for admission to the bar in most states. The MPRE is administered by the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) and is typically taken after an attorney has graduated from law school and passed the bar exam in their home state.

The MPRE is a challenging exam, but it is one that can be passed with the right preparation. The MPRE Bar Review Series is a comprehensive online review course that provides attorneys with everything they need to know to pass the MPRE.

What's Included in the MPRE Bar Review Series?

The MPRE Bar Review Series includes the following:

- Online video lectures: These lectures are taught by experienced attorneys who are experts in professional responsibility. The lectures cover all of the topics that are tested on the MPRE, including:
 - The duties of attorneys to clients
 - The duties of attorneys to the courts
 - The duties of attorneys to the public
 - The ethical rules governing advertising and solicitation
 - The ethical rules governing conflicts of interest
 - The ethical rules governing confidentiality
 - The ethical rules governing fees and billing
 - The ethical rules governing discipline
- Practice questions: The MPRE Bar Review Series includes a large number of practice questions that are similar to the ones that appear on the actual MPRE. These questions are a great way to test your understanding of the material and identify areas where you need more practice.
- Model answers: The MPRE Bar Review Series includes model answers to all of the practice questions. These answers provide detailed explanations of the correct answers and help you to understand the reasoning behind the rules.

- Flashcards: The MPRE Bar Review Series includes a set of flashcards that cover all of the key concepts that are tested on the MPRE. These flashcards are a great way to review the material and test your memory.
- Online forum: The MPRE Bar Review Series includes an online forum where you can ask questions and get help from other students and the instructors.
